Look no further for assistance than this much-anticipated series from Harris & Do, in which she invites field authorities Jeff Zwiers, David and Yvonne Freeman, Margarita Calderon, and Noma LeMoine to share every teacher's need-to-know strategies on the four essential components of academic language. Through applied practice in real-world contexts, the authors explain how to develop students' mastery of grammar and answer difficult questions about usage, demonstrating how grammar acts as a tool for specific composition in students' lives. Accessibility written and organized, this book provides adaptable activity guides for each concept, illustrating instruction from a user-based perspective.
